CUBS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

On August 21, 2009, the Ricketts family signed a definitive agreement with Tribune Company to acquire a 95 percent interest in the Chicago Cubs National League Baseball Club, Wrigley Field and Tribune Company's approximately 25 percent interest in Comcast SportsNet (CSN) in a transaction valued at $845 million. Tribune retained a five-percent ownership interest until January 25, 2019 when it was announced that Chicago Entertainment Ventures, LLC, the Cubs' parent company, had completed the purchase of Tribune's remaining five percent membership interests. In February 2015, the Ricketts family sold a minority non-voting interest in its family holding company to investors.

On October 6, 2009, Major League Baseball owners unanimously approved the transaction by a vote of 29-0.

When the transaction closed October 27, 2009, the Ricketts family became only the eighth owner of the Chicago Cubs since the franchise's inception 133 years prior in 1876 when William A. Hulbert began as the club's first owner. Prior to the Ricketts family, the Cubs had only two owners in the last 90 years, including 62 years of family ownership starting in 1919 when William Wrigley, Jr. purchased the franchise. In 1932, Philip K. Wrigley took control upon his father's death. In 1977, William Wrigley took over the club following the passing of his father, Philip, before selling to the Tribune Company four years later in 1981.

Below is a complete list of Chicago Cubs owners prior to the Ricketts family:

Year..... Owner

1876 .....William A. Hulbert ... owned the Chicago White Stockings and became one of eight charter members of the National League

1882 .....Albert Spalding and John Walsh ... Spalding – the former player, sporting goods tycoon and team president – and Walsh took over after the death of William A. Hulbert

1905 .....Charles Murphy ... Murphy's $125,000 purchase price was financed by Cincinnati Times-Star owner Charles Taft

1914 .....Charles Taft ... Taft bought the Cubs from Charles Murphy

1916 .....Charles Weeghman ... a team owner in the defunct Federal League, Weeghman and nine others purchased the Cubs from Taft and moved the club to Weeghman Park at the corner of Clark and Addison 1919 .....Wrigley family ... William Wrigley Jr. purchased control of the team from Weeghman and renamed Weeghman Park to Cubs Park. In 1926, the ballpark's name was changed to Wrigley Field. Philip K. Wrigley took over in 1932 and William Wrigley took control in 1977.

1981 .....The Tribune Company ... the Tribune's purchase of the Cubs and the Friendly Confines from the Wrigley family ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

- © Epstein is one of only five executives all-time to lead multiple organizations to World Series titles and is just the fourth to do so in both leagues ... Hall of Famers Pat Gillick (1992-93 Blue Jays, 2008 Phillies) and John Schuerholz (1985 Royals, 1995 Braves) won in each league, as has Dave Dombrowski (1997 Marlins, 2018 Red Sox) ... Bob Howsam won with the 1964 Cardinals (after joining St. Louis in August, 1964) and the 1975-76 Reds.
- © In 2002, Epstein became the youngest General Manager in baseball history at the age of 28 years, 11 months ... two years later, at age 30, he became (and remains) the youngest General Manager to win a World Series.

- © All but two of the 25 players on the Cubs' 2016 World Series-winning roster were acquired under Epstein, including 13 via trade ... the Cubs had the consensus top farm system in baseball in 2015 before winning the World Series in 2016.

  - Acquired OF Dexter Fowler from the Astros for RHP Dan Straily and 3B Luis Valbuena on January 19, 2015.
- © Epstein's first three first-round draft picks with the Cubs were all on the 2016 World Series roster: Albert Almora (2012), Kris Bryant (2013), and Kyle Schwarber (2014) ... the trio combined to set up the go-ahead run in the top of the 10th inning of Game 7 of the 2016 World Series when Schwarber singled and Almora pinch-ran, moved to second on Bryant's deep fly to center, and scored on Ben Zobrist's double.
- © In nine seasons as Red Sox GM (2003-11), his clubs made six postseason appearances, won 95 or more games six times, won 90 or more seven times, had 89 or more wins eight times, and played to a .575 winning percentage.
- © Named Red Sox General Manager on November 25, 2002 and in his first off-season signed David Ortiz, Bill Mueller, Kevin Millar and Mike Timlin as low-priced free agents ... traded for Curt Schilling and signed Keith Foulke in his second off-season ... on July 31, 2004, traded Nomar Garciaparra for Orlando Cabrera and Doug Mientkiewicz and acquired Dave Roberts for Henri Stanley.
- © Epstein acquired 15 of the 25 players on the 2004 Red Sox World Series roster.

- © In Dustin Pedroia (2007-08) and Kris Bryant (2015-16), Epstein drafted two of the three players in baseball history to win Rookie of the year, MVP, and a World Series title in their first two seasons ... Cal Ripken (1982-83) is the other.
- © Epstein was named Executive of the Decade (2000-09) for baseball by The Sporting News and was third on Sports Illustrated's list of Top-10 GMs/Executives of the Decade in all sports ... additionally, he won Executive of the Year awards in 2016 (Sporting News, Boston Baseball Writers Association of America, MLB Esurance, Negro Leagues Museum), in 2008 (Baseball America), in 2004 (Boston BBWAA) and in 2003 (Boston BBWAA).

CLARK THE CUB

Clark was born loving the Cubs - it's in his blood! His great-grandbear Joa was once the original live bear mascot for the team back in the early 1900s. When Joa retired to the Lincoln Park Zoo, he delighted the young bears with hundreds of amazing Cubs stories, and Clark was hooked! He dreamed of making his great-grandbear proud and playing for the Cubs - even though he'd never even seen a game.

Then one day, Clark heard the roar of the crowd coming all the way from Wrigleyville. Determined to finally see the Cubs in person, he followed the sound to Wrigley Field, just in time to see the Cubs raise the W flag.

Inspired by Clark's enthusiasm and love of all things Cub, the team invited him to continue the family tradition and become their official mascot! Soon, he had his very own Clubhouse, and you can usually find him there. His favorite thing to do is hang out around the ballpark, keeping spirits high and kids excited!

Clark's Favorites
Favorite Color: Cubbie Blue
Favorite Vacation Spot: Mesa, Arizona
Favorite Movie: Rookie of the Year
Favorite Song: "Go, Cubs, Go"

UNDER THE LIGHTS

In 1988, the Cubs added a new dimension to already historic Wrigley Field - ballpark lights, allowing the club to play night games ... Chicago hosted the Phillies, August 8 of that season, in the first scheduled night game at Wrigley Field ... that game was rained out prior to five innings, so the first official night game at the Friendly Confines took place the following evening, August 9, against the Mets (a 6-4 Cubs win) ... here's a look at how the club has done under the Wrigley Field lights since 1988:

CONSECUTIVE GAME STREAKS

A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if a player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at-bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance does not extend a streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all a player's plate appearances result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or sacrifice bunt. The streak shall end if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

30 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

The Cubs have had four starting pitchers make 30 or more starts in a season just six times since 1901, including in 2015 and 2016 when Jake Arrieta, Jon Lester, Kyle Hendricks and Jason Hammel all reached the 30-start plateau. The Cubs have made the playoffs each of the last four seasons in which they have had four pitchers make 30 starts, as they also accomplished the feat in 2003 and 2007. The club also had four starters reach 30 starts in 1975 and 1977.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

2011: Selected by Cubs in 14th round of draft (scout: Billy Swoope)

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.19 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:

(a) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his team, and; (b) he is not the winning pitcher, and; (c) he is credited with at least 1/3 of an inning pitched, and; (d) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (1) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or; (2) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or; (3) he pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

INNINGS EATERS

The last time the Cubs had five 200.0-plus inning pitchers was in 1904. Jake Weimer led the staff with 307.0 innings of work, followed by Buttons Briggs (277.0), Carl Lundgren (242.0), Bob Wicker (229.0) and Mordecai Brown (212.1).

THE SANDBERG GAME

On June 23, 1984, Ryne Sandberg went 5-for-6 with two late-inning dramatic homers and seven RBI in the Cubs' 11-inning 12-11 victory over St. Louis.

Sandberg hit a solo homer off the Cardinals' Bruce Sutter in the bottom of the ninth inning to knot the game at 9-9. Then, after St. Louis tallied twice in the top of the 10th, Sandberg once again knotted the game – this time with a two-run shot off Sutter. Following his game-tying homers, the Cubs won it on Dave Owen's RBI single.

"The Sandberg Game" overshadowed the performance of the Cardinals' Willie McGee, who hit for the cycle.

HOW TO CALCULATE BASEBALL STATISTICS

Earned Run Average = (ERx9)/IP ... Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).

Batting Average = H/AB ... Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage = TB/AB ... Total number of bases (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases) divided by at-bats.

Fielding Average = (PO+A)/(PO+A+E) ... Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage = (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF) ... Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage = Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers = Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team. In 2017, Anthony Rizzo was honored as the league-wide recipient of the award, the first Cubs winner since Sammy Sosa in 1998 ... Rizzo was honored as the Cubs recipient of award in five-straight seasons from 2013-17, prior to Jon Lester receiving the honor in 2018.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Rob Manfred, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Craig Biggio, Clayton Kershaw, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Albert Pujols, Derek Jeter, Andrew McCutchen and Curtis Granderson.

ERNIE BANKS — MR. CUB

For 19 seasons, Ernie Banks delighted Wrigley Field fans with his long home runs and cheerful disposition. He hit 512 home runs, surpassing the 40-roundtrippers mark five times. He hit 277 of his homers as a shortstop — a National League record. He also holds the N.L. single-season mark for homers by a shortstop (47 in 1958). The 14-time All-Star won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award following both the 1958 and 1959 campaigns.

Banks, whose No. 14 flies from the left field foul pole at Wrigley Field, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1977. He was voted to Major League Baseball's All-Century team in 1999.

Born on January 31, 1931 in Dallas, Texas, Banks played for the Cubs from 1953-71 and served as a coach from 1967-73. He made his major league debut September 17, 1953.

Following Whitey Lockman's ejection on May 8, 1973, coach Ernie Banks took over the reigns as acting manager becoming the first African-American to manage a major league team.

In 2008, Banks was honored by the Cubs with a statue at Wrigley Field, commemorating his illustrious career.

In 2013, Banks was presented with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, an award given to those who have made "an especially meritorious contribution to the security or national interests of the United States, world peace, cultural or other significant public or private endeavors." It is the highest civilian award of the United States.

Banks passed away on January 23, 2015 at the age of 83. The Cubs honored him throughout the 2015 campaign, including wearing a No. 14 patch on their uniforms and displaying a No. 14 logo behind home plate at Wrigley Field.

BEAR CUBS

The greatest number of players to make their major league debuts in one season for the Cubs is 20 — in 1902. The high number of youngsters that season was one of the primary reasons why the club was nicknamed the "Cubs." With the raid of National League players by American League teams, many N.L. clubs stocked their spring training rosters with young, unproven players. The Chicago Daily News, noting all the youngsters in the Chicago camp, used the nickname "Cubs" for the first time in its March 27, 1902 edition.

RUNS SCORED — RUNS ALLOWED

The Cubs mark for consecutive games with a run scored is 127, set from June 15, 1958-May 13, 1959. The team record for scoring in consecutive contests in one season is 109, set in 1943 (May 23-September 18).

The longest streak for Cubs pitchers without hurling a shutout is 106 games, set in 1901 (May 18-September 20).

On June 29, 1897, the Cubs scored at least one run in every inning in a 36-7 victory at Louisville. That was the only time in club history that the team scored at least one run in every frame. The last time the Cubs surrendered at least one run in every inning took place May 5, 1999, vs. Colorado at Wrigley Field.

Since 1900, the Cubs have thrown three consecutive shutouts seven times, with the last occurrence taking place July 21-July 24, 1992 — when the Cubs won 1-0 and 3-0 at Cincinnati and 1-0 at Houston.

The last time the Cubs threw shutouts in both games of a doubleheader occurred July 11, 1965, vs. St. Louis at Wrigley Field (identical 6-0 scores).

The Cubs were held scoreless in a National League-record 48 consecutive innings June 15-June 21, 1968. The club was blanked in four straight games June 16-June 20.

The last time the Cubs allowed three runs or fewer total during a Wrigley Field three-game set occurred September 15-17, 2014 vs. Cincinnati (1-0, 7-0, 3-1) ... the Cubs have allowed just one run total in a three-game series five times since 1900, most recently June 30-July 2, 2015 at New York-N.L.

From July 5-July 7, 2001, the Cubs scored 38 runs over a three-game span — winning by scores of 13-4 at New York and 15-9 and 10-6 at Detroit. Over the three-game span, the Cubs recorded 50 hits — including 21 for extra bases (12 doubles, four triples, five homers).

In 1930, the Cubs established a team record by reaching the 10-run plateau in five-straight games, June 1-June 6. During that stretch — the only time in club history that the team had a double-digit runs streak surpassing three games — the Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 16-4 on June 1 at Wrigley Field before going on a road trip. They swept the Boston Braves over a three-game span June 3-June 5 by scores of 15-2, 18-10 and 10-7, then went to Brooklyn and beat the Dodgers 13-0 on June 6.

During a 20-1 victory over Los Angeles (N.L.) May 5, 2001, the Cubs scored eight times during both the seventh and eighth innings. This was only the fifth time in major league history that a team plated at least eight runs in consecutive frames. The list:

April 30, 1887: St. Louis (N.L.) vs. Cleveland ..... nine in fifth, eight in sixth
June 16, 1887: Philadelphia (N.L.) vs. Washington ..... eight in seventh, eight in eighth
May 2, 1901: Boston (A.L.) vs. Philadelphia ..... nine in second, 10 in third
July 29, 1928: Cleveland vs. New York ..... eight in first, nine in second
May 5, 2001: CUBS vs. Los Angeles..... eight in seventh, eight in eighth

SEEING DOUBLE

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, the Cubs have only had one instance in which starting pitchers struck out 10 batters in three straight games. From May 11-13, 1969, Ken Holtzman (vs. San Francisco), Fergie Jenkins (vs. San Diego) and Dick Selma (vs. San Diego) all went the distance — and struck out 10 batters apiece — in consecutive Wrigley Field affairs.

KEEPING THE ROTATION TOGETHER

The Cubs utilized as few as seven starters in a campaign as recently as 2004, when the only pitchers to start for the club were Matt Clement, Greg Maddux, Sergio Mitre, Mark Prior, Glendon Rusch, Kerry Wood and Carlos Zambrano.

Since 1900, the club mark for fewest starters in a season is six – set in 1901. During the 19th century, the team utilized as few as two starters in four seasons, most recently during a 98-game 1883 campaign (Larry Corcoran 53 starts, Fred Goldsmith 45 starts).

GETTING OFF TO A GOOD START

Jake Arrieta (9-0) and Jason Hammel (5-0) each won their first five decisions of 2016, becoming the first Cubs starters to do so since Carlos Silva started 8-0 in 2010. Arrieta's nine-straight wins to open the campaign was the longest streak since Ken Holtzman also went 9-0 to open the 1967 season. The franchise record for most-consecutive wins to open a season by a starting pitcher belongs to Jim McCormick, who started 16-0 in 1886.

TRIPLE PLAYS: LAST TIME IT HAPPENED

The Cubs have been involved in 77 triple plays since 1876, turning 40 and hitting into 37. The Cubs have hit into the last four triple plays they've been involved in (most recently September 14, 2014 at Pittsburgh — Matt Szczur hit into 5-4-3 triple play).

On May 10, 1997, in San Francisco, the Cubs turned their last triple play. The Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco in the fifth inning with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first. Javier hit a fly ball to short center field, with second base umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield fly rule. The ball dropped in, and both baserunners were thrown out attempting to advance (center fielder Brian McRae to third baseman Jose Hernandez to second baseman Ryne Sandberg).

The last triple play turned at Wrigley Field was by San Francisco on May 8, 1998 (first baseman Charlie Hayes to shortstop Rich Aurilia). The last time the Cubs turned a triple play at The Friendly Confines occurred June 2, 1983, vs. Pittsburgh — when Pirates pitcher Rick Rhoden hit into an around-the-horn triple killing (third baseman Ron Cey to second baseman Ryne Sandberg to first baseman Bill Buckner).

On May 30, 1927, shortstop Jimmy Cooney turned the only unassisted triple play in Cubs history. In the fourth inning of the Cubs' game in Pittsburgh, Cooney caught Paul Waner's line drive, stepped on second base to retire Lloyd Waner, then tagged Clyde Barnhart off first.

2018 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

FOUR IN A ROW: The Chicago Cubs earned the first N.L. Wild Card spot, and advanced to the postseason for the fourth-straight season since 2015 ... marked the first time in franchise history the team made the playoffs in four consecutive seasons ... the Cubs had advanced to the postseason three-straight seasons from 1906-08.

- © The Cubs fell in the N.L. Wild Card Game vs. Colorado, 2-1 in 13 innings ... it was Chicago's second appearance in this iteration of the Wild Card Game ... Chicago defeated Pittsburgh, 4-0, in the 2015 Wild Card Game, October 7, at PNC Park.

ABOUT THE RECORD: The Cubs completed the 2018 regular season with a 95-68 (.583) record, finishing 1.0-game behind Milwaukee (96-67/.589) in the N.L. Central Division and with the top spot for the N.L. Wild Card ... Chicago entered September 3 with a 5.0-game lead in the Division ... the Cubs went 14-11 in their final 25 games while Milwaukee went 19-6 in that span, including 8-0 in its final eight contests.

- © The Cubs reached 90 wins for the fourth season in a row, achieving that feat for the first time in more than 100 years since a nine-year run of 90 or more wins from 1904-12 ... moreover, the Cubs are the only team in the majors to reach 90 wins in each of the last four seasons.

FIT TO BE TIED: The Brewers-Cubs tiebreaker game on October 1 was the second one-game tie-breaker in franchise history (also 1998 vs. the Giants) ... Milwaukee won the game, 3-1 ... the tie breaker gave Chicago at least 163 games in a regular season for the seventh time ever (also in 1965, 1968, 1969, 1988 and 1993 due to replaying tie games ... 1998 one-game tiebreaker).

JUST WIN, BABY: The Cubs recorded 387 regular season victories from 2015-18, marking the winningest four-season span for the franchise in over 100 years .... the Cubs won 391 regular season games in four seasons between 1909-12.

- © The Cubs recorded their fourth-straight winning campaign dating to 2015 ... marked just the second stretch of at least four-straight winning campaigns for Chicago in the last 78 seasons starting in 1940 ... that includes a six-year run from 1967-72.

AT THE PLATE: Chicago led the National League with a .258 team batting average and 1,453 hits, was second with a .333 on-base percentage and fourth with 761 runs scored.

- © The team scored 10 or more runs 17 times, tied for third-most in the N.L. ... however, the team plated one or fewer runs 39 times, the second-most in the majors behind Baltimore (40).
- © Chicago slashed .265/.345/.426 in the season's first half compared to a .249/.316/.389 slash line in the second half.

ON THE BUMP: Cubs pitching posted a 3.65 ERA (598 ER/1,476.1 IP), the second-lowest ERA in the N.L. (Dodgers, 3.38) ... the team's 622 walks allowed were second in the league (Braves, 635) while its 1,333 strikeouts were 12th.

- © Cubs starting pitchers went 59-50 with a 3.84 ERA (379 ER/888.0 IP) ... the staff posted a 2.97 ERA (75 ER/227.0 IP) in the team's final 40 games starting August 21.
- © The bullpen posted a N.L.-best 3.35 ERA (219 ER/588.1 IP), .341 opponent slugging mark and .658 opponent OPS ... the bullpen also led the league with 600 individual appearances (210 of them less than 1.0 inning).

COMEBACK KIDS: Chicago finished the season with 48 come-from-behind wins, the most in the majors, and just one shy of the franchise's record (since 1900) 49 comeback wins done in both 1929 and 1998.

HOME, HOME ON THE RANGE: Chicago went 51-31 (.622) at Wrigley Field, the fifth-best home winning percentage in the majors ... the Cubs went unbeaten in 13-straight home series from May 25-August 29, going 10-0-3 in that span.

ROAD WARRIORS: The Cubs finished their road schedule with a 44-37 mark, the fourth-straight season Chicago has had a winning road record ... the team last had a longer stretch of consecutive winning seasons on the road during an 11-year run, 1902-12.

WEATHER WOES: The Cubs led the majors with nine postponements, including four in the first two and a half weeks of the campaign ... the nine postponements were Chicago's most since 10 in 1975.

- © The Cubs had two-straight postponements due to rain, snow and freezing temps, April 15 vs. Atlanta and April 16 vs. St. Louis ... the Cubs were previously rained out on consecutive days at Wrigley Field, August 25-26, 1987 vs. the Braves.
- © Chicago endured nearly 11 hours of delays and two postponements in a four-day stretch in Washington, D.C., September 6-9 ... three of the four scheduled games were played, and the Cubs had to return to Nationals Park, September 13 to make up the final game.

30 FOR 30, 42 OF 43: Weather postponements led to a stretch of 30-straight scheduled game days for Chicago from August 21-September 19 ... May 17 in Atlanta was washed out, and was made up August 30 - that gave the Cubs 23 games in 23 days from August 21-September 12 ... however, when the September 9 game in Washington D.C. was rained out, MLB slated the make-up game for September 13, wiping out an off day and giving the Cubs 30-consecutive game dates through September 19.

- © Chicago finished the 30-straight days with a scheduled game with an 18-11 (.621) record ... the previous time the Cubs had a similar 30-day stretch and posted at least a .600 winning percentage was from April 20-May 22, 1932 in which the team went 18-10 (.642).
- © From August 21 through the regular season's end, Chicago had games scheduled in 40 of 41 days (off day was September 20) ... including the N.L. Central tie-breaker game and the N.L. Wild Card Game, the team finished with 42 gamedays in its final 43 days of the season.

HE'LL MANAGE: Joe Maddon has compiled a 387-261 (.597) regular season managerial record since joining the Cubs in 2015 ... the 387 victories are a franchise mark for a manager's first four seasons with Chicago ... Maddon is 126 games over .500, fourth-most among all managers in franchise history, surpassed only by Frank Chance (379 games over), Cap Anson (350) and Charlie Grimm (164).

JUST SO GRAND: The Cubs hit six grand slams in 2018, matching their total from 2017 ... three of the slams were game winners:

- © Addison Russell on June 29 vs. Minnesota hit the team's first game-winning grand slam with the club down by three since Anthony Rizzo did so September 16, 2012 vs. Pittsburgh.
- © Jason Heyward on June 6 vs. Philadelphia hit a walk-off grand slam to give the Cubs a 7-5 win ... was the first walk-off slam for Chicago since July 27, 2009 vs. Houston when Alfonso Soriano lifted the team to a 5-1 win ... marked the club's first walk-off slam when trailing since Ron Santo turned the trick, September 25, 1968 for a 4-1 win over the Dodgers.
- © David Bote on August 12 vs. Washington hit a pinch-hit walk-off grand slam while down to the team's last strike for a 4-3 win ... was the first Cub to hit a pinch-hit walk-off slam since Earl Averill, May 12, 1959 vs. Milwaukee.

10 X 4: The Cubs scored 10 or more runs in four-straight games, June 28 (@ LAD) and June 29-July 1 (vs. MIN), for the first time since a franchise record five-game streak, June 1-6, 1930.

A TRUE RARITY: March 30 at Miami was just the fourth game in the last 100 years in which Cubs pitching worked at least 16.2 innings without surrendering an extra-base hit, and the first time since tossing 17.0 innings, August 11, 1992, vs. Montreal (a 3-2, 17-inning setback) ... prior to that, it hadn't happened since October 1, 1920, vs. the St. Louis Cardinals in a 3-2, 17-inning win ... the first instance took place on June 4, 1908, a 1-1, 17-inning tie at the Boston Doves ... yes, the Doves.

STINGY STAFF: Cubs pitching surrendered just seven runs in the four-game Milwaukee series, April 5-8, recording an 8-0 victory on April 5 prior to April 8's 3-0 win ... in between, the Cubs fell 5-4 on April 6 and won a 5-2 decision on April 7.

© Chicago pitching previously allowed seven or fewer runs in a four-game series, Sept. 27-30, 2010 at San Diego ... the staff allowed just five runs in that series.

ENOUGH OF THE HOTEL STAYS: The Cubs were the only team in baseball to start the regular season with a three-city road trip, going to Miami (2-2), Cincinnati (0-1) and Milwaukee (3-1) ... the Cubs started a season with a three-city trip for the first time since 2000 when they started off with a pair of games against the New York Mets in Tokyo, Japan followed by three-game sets in St. Louis and Cincinnati ... the Cubs started a season with a North American three-city trip for the first time since 1988 (2 games in Atlanta, 3 games in Montreal, 3 games in St. Louis).

© The nine-game jaunt was the franchise's longest to open a season since the 1899 Chicago Orphans played their first 12 games of that season on the road, a trip in which they went 7-5 at Louisville, Cincinnati and St. Louis.

PRODUCTIVE NIGHT AT THE PLATE: Chicago on April 11 vs. Pittsburgh recorded seven doubles and three homers in a game at Wrigley Field for the first time in nearly 67 years, previously doing so on May 18, 1951 vs. the Phillies (7 doubles, 3 homers in an 18-9 win) ... the team last turned the trick on the road, August 18, 1995 at Colorado (7 doubles, 3 homers in a 26-7 win).

WE'LL CALL IT A COMEBACK: The Cubs on April 14 erased a 10-2 deficit after four innings to defeat the Braves, 14-10 ... trailing 10-5 in the eighth, the Cubs plated nine runs on three hits, five walks, two hit-by-pitches, one wild pitch and one error, with Javy Báez tying the game at 10-10 with a three-run double and the game-winning run crossing the plate on a bases-loaded Kyle Schwarber walk.

© The eight-run comeback was Chicago's largest since wiping out an eight-run deficit, July 7, 2011, at the Nationals (down 8-0, won 10-9).

© Chicago's eighth inning marked the first time the team recorded nine runs on three hits in an inning since May 19, 1954 at the Dodgers (scored nine on three hits, four walks and three errors in the eighth to win 9-3).

© Elias Sports Bureau notes that the Cubs were the first team since the Diamondbacks in 2011 (Sept. 27 vs. the Dodgers) to erase a deficit of at least five runs and take a lead in an inning with three or fewer hits ... it was the first time in modern major league history (since 1900) that the Cubs had done so.

© Chicago became the first team to win by 4+ runs after trailing by 8+ runs since the Blue Jays came back from an eight-run deficit to win 14-9 over the Reds on June 20, 2014 ... thanks to STATS, Inc.

WILL RESPECT THE RESULTS OF THE DUEL: The Cubs won five-straight games April 26-30 despite scoring three-or-fewer runs in all five games for the only time on record in the last 100 years ... on the flip side, the Cubs were one of just six teams to win at least two games when allowing seven-or-more runs as the Cubs won 14-10 vs. Atlanta, April 14, and 9-7 at Colorado, April 22.

© The Cubs had six wins when scoring three-or-fewer runs, second-most in the majors behind Colorado (seven).

CUBS PITCH(ER)S: Cubs starting pitchers didn't allow an earned run in five-straight games, April 26-30, and for a stretch of 33.2-consecutive innings dating to April 25 in Cleveland ... Ed Hartig notes that Cubs starting pitchers did not allow an earned run in five-straight starts for the first time since June 25-28, 1912 at Cincinnati (four games) and vs. Pittsburgh.

PITCHING IN: The Cubs used three position players as pitchers in a game for the first time since 1884 on July 20 vs. St. Louis in an 18-5 setback ... Tommy La Stella (1.1 IP, 3 H, 1 R/ER), Victor Caratini (1.0 IP, 2 H, 2 R/ER) and Ian Happ (1.0 IP, H) all made their first career pitching appearances.

PERFECT TIMING: David Bote and Anthony Rizzo hit back-to-back homers to close out a 7-6 win vs. Arizona, July 26 ... it marked Chicago's first walk-off win via back-to-back homers since April 16, 2004 vs. Cincinnati (Sammy Sosa and Moises Alou).

GOING SOLO: The Cubs were limited to exactly one run in five-straight games, with each run scoring by way of a solo homer, August 16-22 during a four-game series in Pittsburgh and the first game of a two-game set in Detroit ... the Cubs actually went 2-3 during the five-game stretch, allowing three runs or less in each contest.

© The Cubs became the first team in major league history to score exactly one run in five-straight games with each run coming via a solo home run.

© According to Elias, the Cubs matched their franchise record by scoring one run or less in five-straight games, the first time since May 19-23, 2009 ... the Cubs have gone five games in a row while scoring one run or less a total of nine times ... the Cubs went 2-3 during this stretch, while the previous five of this ilk were accompanied by an 0-5 record ... the last time the Cubs won even one game during an offensive drought like this was during this next bulletpoint:

© The Cubs scored exactly one run in five games in a row for only the second time in franchise history ... the Cubs also turned this trick from August 27-September 1, 1934, when the club turned in a 2-3 record.

DAILY DOUBLE!: In Chicago's 1-0 win in Pittsburgh, August 17, the Cubs tied a major league record by turning seven double plays ... Cole Hamels induced five of those double plays.

FINISHING KICKS: Kyle Hendricks posted a 1.66 ERA (10 ER/54.1 IP) in his final nine starts of the season, beginning August 21 ... he pitched at least 7.2 innings in each of his final three starts, the first Cub to turn that trick since Jake Arrieta went at least 7.2 IP in five-straight outings from Aug. 30-Sept. 22, 2015.

© Jon Lester closed out the campaign with a 1.71 ERA (9 ER/47.1 IP) in his final eight starts of the season.

GRAND SLAM FACTS AND FIGURES

The Cubs have hit 323 grand slams in franchise history, including six last season.

The Cubs record for grand slams in a season is nine, recorded in 1929 by Hack Wilson (2), Rogers Hornsby (2), Charlie Grimm (2), Riggs Stephenson, Norman McMillan and Kiki Cuyler. McMillan's roundtripper was of the inside-the-park variety.

The club's first grand slam was hit by pitcher Larry Corcoran on June 20, 1882, off Worcester's Lee Richmond at Chicago's Lakefront Park.

The only Cubs to hit more than two grand slams in one season are Ernie Banks (5 in 1955), Wildfire Schulte (4 in 1911) and Sammy Sosa (3 in 1998). Sosa hit grand slams in back-to-back games July 27-July 28 of that season, becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat.

On June 3, 1987, the Cubs and Houston Astros combined to hit three grand slams — tying a major league single-game record. Two Cubs hit bases-loaded roundtrippers — Brian Dayett (off Bob Knepper) and Keith Moreland (off Julio Solano). Houston's Billy Hatcher hit a grand slam in the contest off Rick Sutcliffe.

On August 16, 1890, Chicago batters Tom Burns and Malachi Kittridge both connected for fifth-inning grand slams off Pittsburgh's Bill Phillips — for the franchise's only multiple grand slam inning.

CUBS SWITCH-HITTER INFORMATION

Entering the 2019 season, the Cubs have employed 138 position-player switch-hitters in their history, including at least one every season since 1960. The club has had six switch-hitting position players in a season four times, most recently in 1978 (Tim Blackwell, Mike Gordon, Steve Ontiveros, Rodney Scott, Joe Wallis and Jerry White).

The first switch-hitting Cub was player/manager Bob Ferguson in 1878. Don Kessinger, meanwhile, holds the switch-hitting longevity mark for the Cubs at 12 years (1964-1975).

CUBS PITCHING NOTES

The Cubs set a team mark in 2018 by utilizing 35 different pitchers.

The club mark for most left-handed pitchers to see mound action in a season is 11 – a figure reached in 2018 that surpassed 10 in 1999, 2000 and 2017. Prior to the 1999 campaign, the team record of eight had stood since 1966.

The team mark for most strikeouts by a reliever is 11, set by Dave Hillman during a 7.2-inning relief stint May 28, 1959, against Los Angeles.

The last Cubs position players to take the mound for the Cubs were catcher Victor Caratini and first baseman Anthony Rizzo, July 23, 2018 vs. Arizona.

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, only two Cubs have recorded saves in their major league debuts: Todd Wellemeyer (5/15/03 @ MIL) and Kyuji Fujikawa (4/1/13 @ PIT).

The last Cubs rookie to hurl consecutive complete games was Rich Hill in 2006 (September 16 vs. Cincinnati, September 22 at Cincinnati). Hill finished with two complete games in 2006, making him the first Cubs rookie with more than one complete game in a season since Frank Castillo tossed four in 1991.

The best career start record-wise for a Cubs pitcher is 8-0, recorded by King Cole in 1910 and Carlos Silva in 2010. The worst start belongs to Chris Volstad, who began his Cubs career 0-9 in 2012.

On July 17, 1918, Lefty Tyler pitched a Cubs-record 21 innings in a route-going 2-1 win against Philadelphia. He gave up 13 hits and one walk while striking out eight.
Three years earlier, on June 17, 1915, reliever George "Zip" Zabel was called into a game against Brooklyn with two out in the top of the 1st inning at West Side Grounds. He had to pitch 18.1 innings before earning the win, as the Cubs won 4-3 in the 19th inning.

GOING THE DISTANCE

The last time Cubs pitchers went the distance in three consecutive contests took place during the 1976 campaign – when Rick Reuschel (September 18), Ray Burris (September 19) and Steve Renko (September 21) did the honors.

The last time the Cubs had three straight complete-game shutouts took place in May 1969. Ken Holtzman started the streak May 11 with an 8-0 victory over San Francisco. Fergie Jenkins then blanked San Diego 2-0 on May 12. Dick Selma finished the stretch with a three-hitter in a 19-0 victory over the Padres May 13.

HIGHLIGHTS IN CUBS HISTORY

1876: The first game in the history of the Chicago National League franchise took place April 25, as Albert Spalding pitched the first N.L. shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... Spalding also had the first hit in franchise history, while center fielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the second inning.

© The first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati.

© The creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, who held the dual role of league president and Chicago president until 1882 ... with the assistance of manager Albert Spalding, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.

© Of the eight original charter members of the National League, only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

1883: Chicago set major league records when it scored 18 runs and collected 18 hits in September 6's seventh frame ... the Cubs went on to beat Detroit 26-6.

1903: In October, the Cubs and White Sox held the first of the semi-annual "City Series" ... at points from 1903-1942, the two teams met following the regular season for a crosstown set as long as neither team made the Fall Classic.

© In the inaugural year, the Chicago teams ended with seven wins apiece ... what would have been the deciding game was canceled due to weather.

1906: The Chicago club went 116-36 in setting major league records for wins in a season and winning percentage (.763).

© The Cubs and White Sox met in the first and only all-Chicago Fall Classic ... it also marked the first time two teams from the same city met in the World Series ... the Cubs fell to the White Sox, four games to two.

1907: "Cubs" was officially adopted as the nickname of the team ... the Cubs then went on to win their first World Series, defeating Detroit in five games.

1908: The Cubs were World Series champions for the second straight year, defeating Detroit four games to one.

1916: The Cubs moved into Weeghman Park (now known as Wrigley Field).

1921: William Wrigley Jr. became the Cubs' majority owner.

© Wrigley's involvement with the team began in 1916, when a 10-man syndicate led by Charles Weeghman purchased the club from Charles Taft ... in 1919, Wrigley purchased Weeghman's shares to have controlling interest.

© After Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.

© The sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

1924: The first Cubs game was broadcast on the radio ... Hal Totten transmitted the April 23 home opener from the Wrigley Field roof ... Chicago routed the Cardinals 12-1 in the contest.

1930: Hack Wilson established a M.L. record by driving in 191 runs while hitting 56 home runs – a club/N.L. record that lasted until 1998.

© The largest crowd to see a baseball game at Wrigley Field (51,556) took place June 27 vs. Brooklyn ... of that number, 30,476 were Ladies' Day guests and 1,332 were passholders.

1945: The Cubs went to their 10th World Series, falling to Detroit in seven games.

1946: Chicago aired its first game on television ... the July 13 home game was carried out on WBKB with Jack Gibney calling the 4-3 loss to the Dodgers.

1958: Ernie Banks became the first member of a team with a losing record to win the MVP Award ... also was named the N.L. MVP in 1959, becoming the first N.L. player to win the award in consecutive seasons.

1960: Don Cardwell threw a no-hitter against St. Louis in his Cubs debut May 15 ... became the first pitcher in baseball history to hurl a no-hitter in his first game for a club.

1970: Billy Williams became the first player in N.L. history to appear in 1,000 consecutive games, reaching that mark April 30 ... his streak extended to 1,117 games before ending September 3.

1973: Following Whitey Lockman's ejection May 8, coach Ernie Banks takes over the reigns as acting manager, becoming the first African-American in major league history to manage a team.

1982: On May 25 at San Diego, Fergie Jenkins became the seventh pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 strikeouts.

© On August 22, Ernie Banks became the first Cub to have his uniform number (14) retired.

1984: The Cubs clinched their first N.L. Eastern Division title September 24 in Pittsburgh (4-1), marking the first time since 1945 that the club advanced into the postseason ... the Cubs went 96-65 under N.L. Manager of the Year Jim Frey.

© The Cubs fell to San Diego in the NLCS three games to two.

1987: Andre Dawson became the first player from a sixth-place team to win the N.L.'s MVP Award, hitting 49 homers and driving in 137 runs.

© On August 13, Hall of Famer Billy Williams had his No. 26 retired.

1988: The first Wrigley Field night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia ... the game was rained out after 3.5 innings with the Cubs leading 3-1.

© The first official night contest took place August 9 vs. New York, with the Cubs winning 6-4 ... the first pitch was thrown by Mike Bielecki at 7:05 p.m. – a called strike to Lenny Dykstra.

1989: The Cubs won their second N.L. Eastern Division title when they defeated Montreal 3-2 at Olympic Stadium September 26 ... the Cubs compiled a 93-69 record under N.L. Manager of the Year Don Zimmer before falling in the NLCS to San Francisco four games to one.

© For only the fifth time, teammates finished as the top two votegetters in the Jackie Robinson N.L. Rookie of the Year balloting ... Jerome Walton, who had a club-record 30-game hitting streak during the season, won the award, while Dwight Smith finished second in the voting.

1990: Ryne Sandberg hit a league-high 40 home runs, the third-highest single-season total for a second baseman behind the 42 hit by St. Louis' Rogers Hornsby in 1922 and Atlanta's Davey Johnson in 1973.

© Sandberg also set a then M.L. record by playing errorless ball in 123-straight games at second base, June 21, 1989-May 17, 1990.

1993: Sammy Sosa became the first player in Cubs history to record a 30-homer/30-steal campaign (33 homers, 36 steals).

1995: The Cubs won their 9,000th game May 21 at Los Angeles, defeating the Dodgers 2-1 in 13 innings.

© Sammy Sosa hit the 10,000th homer in Cubs history August 14 in Los Angeles (off Tom Candiotti).

1998: The Cubs went to post-season play as the N.L.'s Wild Card club after defeating San Francisco 5-3 in a one-game tie-breaker ... the Cubs were swept by Atlanta during the Division Series.

© Sammy Sosa, who battled St. Louis' Mark McGwire for the major league homer record, earned N.L. Most Valuable Player honors ... Sosa finished the campaign with 66 homers – four behind McGwire – while leading the majors with 158 RBI and 134 runs scored.

YOU CAN COME HOME AGAIN

Of the more than 2,000 players who have appeared in at least one game for the Cubs, six have had 10-plus year interruptions in their time with the club:

13 years: Roger Bresnahan (1900 ... 1913-1915) and Johnny Moore (1928-1929, 1931-1932 ... 1945)
12 years: Larry Gura (1970-1973 ... 1985) and Dave Martinez (1986-1988 ... 2000)
11 years: Greg Maddux (1986-1992 ... 2004-2006)
10 years: Lonny Frey (1937 ... 1947)

The longest span between homers for the team belongs to Billy Jurges, who went nine years, 22 days between Cubs homers August 2, 1938, through August 24, 1947 (both homers were hit at the Polo Grounds). Jurges was a Cub from 1931-1938 and in 1946-1947.

CUBS BY THE NUMBERS

The Cubs began wearing numbers on their uniforms in 1932. Here are the five most recent uses of each jersey number by a Cubs player/manager/coach during the regular season, along with the first Cub to don each number.

PHILLING UP THE SCOREBOARD

On August 25, 1922, the Cubs topped Philadelphia 26-23 at Cubs Park in the highest-scoring game in major league history. The teams combined for 51 hits, 23 walks and 25 men left-on-base. A 10-run second inning followed by a 14-run outburst in the fourth helped the Cubs build a 25-6 lead. Philadelphia fought back and had the bases full when the last out was recorded in the ninth inning.

On May 17, 1979, Dave Kingman hit three homers and drove in six runs, but Philadelphia's Mike Schmidt answered with two homers – including the game-winner in the 10th – to give the Phillies a 23-22 victory in baseball's highest-scoring game since the 1922 affair. The Cubs had trailed 21-9, but rallied and tied the score in the eighth.

For the first time since winning the 1908 World Series, the Cubs were victorious in a postseason series ... as such, the Cubs qualified for their first trip to the National League Championship Series since 1989.

- © The affair was only the third "final and decisive" post-season contest in Cubs history ... the club had dropped Game Seven of the 1945 World Series to Detroit and Game Five of the 1984 NLCS to San Diego.
- © With two victories, Kerry Wood became the first Cub to pick up a pair of wins in a post-season series since Hank Borowy in the 1945 World Series ... he fanned 18 batters in the two starts, surpassing the club-record 17 recorded by Hippo Vaughn in the 1918 World Series ... in the series-opening 4-2 victory, he had two hits – and drove in the game-winning run with a two-run double in the Cubs four-run sixth inning.
- © In Game Three (a 3-1 Cubs win), Mark Prior went the distance – allowing two hits while fanning seven ... he was the first Cubs pitcher to throw a complete game in the postseason since Claude Passeau accomplished the feat in Game Three of the 1945 World Series ... in the process, he also became the second hurler to throw a two-hitter in a Division Series affair, joining Nolan Ryan (October 6, 1981).

Five outs – that's all that stood between the Cubs 3-0 lead in Game Six and their first trip to the Fall Classic since 1945 ... before two of those outs could be recorded, Florida stunned the Cubs with an eight-run eighth-inning rally.

- By the time the fateful eighth was over, the Marlins had sent 12 batters to the plate ... the eight runs were the most in an NLCS inning since St. Louis plated nine in the second inning October 13, 1985, against Los Angeles.
- There was another day for the Cubs, however ... in Game Seven, they found themselves down 3-0 early before rallying to tie the score in the bottom of the second – including a two-run shot by Kerry Wood ... his roundtripper was just the fourth by a pitcher in NLCS history – and the first since the Cubs Rick Sutcliffe went deep in Game One of the 1984 NLCS vs. San Diego ... the Cubs then went ahead 5-3 in the third inning on Moises Alou's two-run homer ... from that point, though, the Cubs were held to just one hit – a Troy O'Leary pinch homer in the seventh off Josh Beckett – as the Marlins pushed across six runs from the fifth through seventh innings.
- In the process, the Marlins became the fourth team in League Championship Series history to overcome a three-games-to-one deficit in advancing to the World Series.

Chicago batted just .194 (19-for-98) in the series with six runs scored ... Chicago batted just .087 (2-for-23) with runners in scoring position while Geovany Soto hit the club's lone home run - a two-run blast in Game Two off Arizona's Doug Davis.

SEVENTH HEAVEN

Game Seven marked the 60th extra-inning game in World Series history, and just the fifth in a decisive game, joining Game Seven of the 1997 World Series, Game Seven of the 1991 World Series, Game Seven of the 1924 World Series and Game Eight of the 1912 World Series ... the Cubs became the first road team to win an extra-inning game in the decisive game of a Fall Classic.

The Cubs won a Game Seven for the first time in club history ... had previously dropped Game Seven of the 1945 World Series and Game Seven of the 2003 NLCS, both at Wrigley Field.

HISTORY OF WRIGLEY FIELD

The 2019 season marks the 104th year of Cubs baseball at Wrigley Field and the 106th season of professional baseball ... opened in 1914, Wrigley Field is the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

- © Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.
- © Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry into the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.
- © The cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.
- © The first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was hit by Federals catcher Art Wilson – a two-run shot in the second inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.
- © When the Federal League folded for financial reasons after the 1915 campaign, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corners of Clark and Addison streets.
- © The first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.
- © The park became known as Cubs Park in 1919, following the resignation of Charles Weeghman as team president at the December 1918 board of directors meeting - shortly after William Wrigley Jr. had assumed the title as largest stockholder in the club ... in 1926, with Mr. Wrigley owning more than 50 percent of the team stock and having purchased the land of the park in 1924, the field was renamed Wrigley Field.

HISTORIC MOMENTS AT THE FRIENDLY CONFINES:

- © Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location during Game 3 of the 1932 World Series ... Ruth then hit Charlie Root's next pitch for a homer.
- © Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin'" September 28, 1938, off Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
- © The great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
- © Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
- © Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.
- © Kerry Wood's 20-strikeout affair in 1998.
- © Sammy Sosa's 60th home runs in 1998, 1999 and 2001.
- © Greg Maddux's 3,000th career strikeout July 26, 2005.
- © Tom Glavine's 300th career victory August 5, 2007.
- © The Cubs clinched the N.L. Pennant at Wrigley Field, October 22, 2016, defeating the Dodgers, 5-0 in NLCS Game Six.
- © The 1947, 1962 and 1990 All-Star Games.

BLEACHERS AND SCOREBOARD: The Wrigley Field bleachers and center-field scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact.

- © The score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" – to signify hit and error – are eyelets.
- © No batted ball has ever hit the center-field scoreboard ... two baseballs barely missed – a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.
- © One of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

IVY WALLS: The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

LIGHTS: Wrigley Field added lights in 1988, becoming the final major league stadium to hold night games.

- © The first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, with Rick Sutcliffe on the mound, but was rained out in the fourth inning.
- © The first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.
- © The Cubs enter the 2019 season having played 717 home night contests (going 382-335).

WRIGLEY FIELD CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS:

- © During the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitor's clubhouse was renovated in 1990.
- © In 1989, a new press box and broadcast booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate ... private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, where the press box was formerly.
- © Following the 2005 season, the Cubs expanded the bleachers, adding a restaurant in the batter's eye and a window to Sheffield Avenue in right field.
- © In the winter of 2007, Wrigley Field underwent a major field renovation project to remove the field's crown, install an intricate drainage system and create a new playing surface.
- © Prior to the 2010 season, the back of the centerfield scoreboard was fully renovated for the first time since it was installed in 1937 ... restrooms were remodeled and fitted with new fixtures, a new viewing plaza was created adjacent to the indoor batting cage to provide fans the opportunity to watch batting practice and the PNC Club was added to the mezzanine suites down the left field line.
- © Prior to the 2012 campaign, the right-field Budweiser bleachers were transformed to include the Budweiser Patio ... the area provided fans with a rooftop experience inside the ballpark, and added a 75-foot LED board just above the right field fence.
- © The long-awaited restoration and expansion of Wrigley Field, now known as The 1060 Project, is well underway ... this multi-year upgrade is designed to preserve the ballpark's beauty, charm and historic features that fans have cherished for more than a century, while updating and improving the iconic ballpark for fans, players and the community.
- © The 1060 Project, which started at the conclusion of the 2014 baseball season, includes structural upgrades, improved player facilities, new fan amenities, outfield signage, two video boards, new premier clubs, expanded concessions, new and improved restroom facilities, and much more ... for more information on The 1060 Project, please visit www.wrigleyfield.com.

SLOAN PARK — MESA, ARIZONA

Spring Training 2019 marks the Cubs sixth year at their current complex in Mesa, Ariz., highlighted by Sloan Park - the largest ballpark by capacity in the Cactus League ... Sloan Valve Company, the official water efficiency partner of the Cubs, became the naming rights partner in January of 2015.

© Sloan Park has a seating capacity of 15,000 ... 9,200 in the seating bowl, 4,200 in the general admission outfield lawn berm and 1,600 in the suite level ... nearly 2,000 more than the Cubs' previous Spring Training home at HoHoKam Stadium ... the ballpark features a viewing area in left field called the Budweiser Rooftop, a third and first base party deck area, a kids area and a multi-purpose plaza area.

© The field dimensions are similar to Wrigley Field in layout, but generally slightly deeper due to the Arizona environment:

	Sloan Park (Mesa)	Wrigley Field (Chicago)
Left Field Line	360 feet	355 feet
Center Field	410 feet	400 feet
Right Center	398 feet	368 feet
Right Field Line	360 feet	353 feet

© The Cubs complex features 16 batting tunnels, including 12 indoors, and 22 pitching mounds. The former Fitch Park, where the Cubs previously began Spring Training prior to the start of the Cactus League schedule, had eight pitching mounds and four batting tunnels.

- Additionally, the complex features four practice fields, two major league fields and a half-sized field.

© The 70,000-square foot Under Armour Performance Center houses Cubs offices, both major and minor league clubhouses, a 7,500-square foot workout facility, training facilities including a hydrotherapy room and a 120-seat theater.

© The 142-acre Spring Training complex is nearly twice as large as the 79 combined acres between Fitch Park and HoHoKam Stadium.

© The complex, located by the 101 and 202 interchange, houses both the Cubs major league and minor league spring operations, and is utilized year-round by the organization.

Sloan Park set the Cactus League single-season attendance record in 2017 with 226,933 fans passing through the gates ... it surpassed the previous mark of 226,163 set by the Cubs in 2016 ... including two additional exhibition games against Team Italy and Team Japan, Sloan Park hosted 251,899 fans in 2017.

© The Sloan Park average attendance of 15,129 in 2017 surpassed the previous mark of 15,078 set by the Cubs in 2016.

© Sloan Park holds the single-game Cactus League attendance mark of 15,849 set, March 13, 2018 vs. San Francisco.

The Cubs have drawn 51 crowds of at least 15,000 people to Sloan Park since it opened in 2014. The top 10 crowds are listed below, which are also the top-10 crowds in Cactus League history:

The Cubs return to Mesa for their 41st-consecutive Spring Training, the longest active streak in the Cactus League ... before moving into their new park in 2014, the Cubs had spent the previous 17 Cactus League seasons at HoHoKam Stadium and Fitch Park ... all told, 2019 marks the Cubs' 55th season of Spring Training in Mesa (1952-65, 1979-present).

© In 2010, Mesa voters approved $84 million to construct a baseball stadium, training and practice facility in Mesa, Ariz. for the Chicago Cubs ... the city contributed $15 million for related infrastructure work, and as part of the agreement with the City of Mesa, the Chicago Cubs committed their Spring Training games to the site for the next 30 years.

© Mesa is the second-largest city in the Phoenix metropolitan area and the third-largest city in Arizona ... Mesa is located southeast of Phoenix and Scottsdale.
